CHILD SOBBED AS ATTORNEYS PLEAD FOR HUPP

Arms Were About Father's Neck In Crowded Court Room

IMPASSIONED PLEA TO SAVE HER DADDY FROM PRISON

Mantle of Charity Drawn Over Perfidy of Defendant's Wife

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, March 7.—Fourteen-year-old Consuelia Hupp sobbed convulsively in Judge Kennedy's crowded courtroom this morning while attorneys who are defending her father, Elmer Hupp, wealthy oil operator, charged with second degree murder for killing Charles L. Joyce on the night of January 10, made an impassioned plea for a verdict that would put "sunshine in the little girl's heart."

Her arms were about the neck of her father while the attorneys for Hupp drew the mantle of charity over any relations between her mother, Mrs. Ethel Hupp and Joyce.

There were few dry eyes in the courtroom when Attorneys William L. David and William H. Boyd, counsel for Hupp, painted a word-picture of a wife's perfidy; of a husband's love for that wife despite his knowledge of her unfaithfulness, and of his temporary insanity when he discovered his wife and Joyce in the wife's bedroom.

"We can't have people ask this little girl: 'Where is your daddy?' and have her answer: 'He's in the penitentiary,'" shouted Attorney David. "Charles Joyce was a wretch and a scoundrel," David continued. "Joyce assumed the risk when he entered that home."

"We want a verdict that will put sunshine in that little girl's heart. We want a verdict that will allow this father and daughter to be together. Of the wife, I have nothing to say. I draw the mantle of charity over her and Joyce."

Assistant County Prosecutor Babka, who opened the argument for the state, termed the crime "the most hideous in the city's annals," adding: "The burden of proof that Hupp was mentally unbalanced rests on the defense. Hupp planned this crime and in proof I point to the fact of his remaining an entire day in a hotel before going out to his home when the crime was committed."

He said the crime was one for which the jury should exact the full (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

SPLIT OCCURS IN CONVENTION OF THE PROHIBS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, March 7.—While prepared to go ahead as a national unit, leaders of the Prohibition party admitted today that the action of 51 delegates last night in bolting the national convention and going over to the new national party, now holding its convention here, had dealt the prohibition organ a severe blow.

The question of merging with the new party failed of a necessary two-thirds majority when the vote was taken yesterday, the result being 173 for and 141 against.

Later, a resolution was adopted to co-operate with the national party "in the furtherance of certain aims," and another resolution adopted provides that the Prohibition party "retain its name and its activities," but that its national committee meet with the national party committee to co-operate in furthering the election of state legislators and congressmen favoring the platform of each party.

The principals on which the two parties agree, and which led to the preparation of merger first met last fall, are prohibition, woman suffrage and public ownership of public utilities.

Fifty-one delegates left their seats after the vote on merger, an action which had been threatened during the debate. They were led by H. P. Faris of Missouri, and W. J. Calderwood, and State Senator E. E. Lock of Minnesota, and went over to the national party convention for enlistment under the new banner. It was claimed by them that many states would disband their prohibition organizations and join the new party. Delegates from the following states who bolted the convention announced their state organizations would at once take such action: Minnesota, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Kansas, Oregon, Washington, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Opponents of merger were the veterans in the ranks of the Prohibitionists, while the younger element in the party urged merging with the national party.

Delegates to the convention who voted against the merger were divided in opinion today as to whether the split would result in a complete break in the Prohibition party. All admitted the party would be seriously affected by the disaffection of delegates.

PAY TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF JOHN REDMOND

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Wednesday, March 6.—The house of commons paid tribute to the memory of John E. Redmond today when Premier Lloyd George and various party leaders expressed their sense of the loss the house had sustained.

Mr. Lloyd George said the house was shocked profoundly by the unexpected news of the death of one of its oldest, most respected and eminent members. Mr. Redmond had been a member of the house for 37 years and during that period, the premier added, he had grown in the esteem, admiration and affection of the members of all parties.

That was a great thing to say of any member, Mr. Lloyd George continued but it was the greatest thing to say of a man who had been engaged in one of the fiercest controversies of our time. There might be difference of opinion as to the policy for which he stood and fought, but there was absolutely no difference of opinion as to the ability, judgment, dignity and honorableness which he devoted to that policy.

Premier Lloyd George said that Mr. Redmond gave up everything in service for Ireland and it was one of the tragedies of that land that he was struck down before he achieved the great purpose of his life. Warm tribute, he said, had been paid to the nationalist leader by his political opponents in the Irish convention who trusted and believed in him.

Former Premier Asquith added his tribute, saying: "We, in this house, even those who differed most acutely and deeply from him, agree without reserve or qualification that he was at once a great parliamentarian and a true patriot. The house of commons, Ireland, Great Britain, the whole empire is impoverished by his death."

Sir Edward Carson, recalling that he had known Mr. Redmond for 35 years said he could say with absolute sincerity that during the whole of that time, "I cannot recollect that one bitter or personal word ever passed between John Redmond and myself."

GERMAN BRUTALLY KILLS BELGIAN IN PRESENCE OF SON

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 7.—How the members of a crew of a German submarine brutally killed the wounded master of a Belgian fishing smack who refused to leave the vessel, is described in a press association dispatch from Penzance. The submarine attacked the smack with gun fire and the skipper wounded severely. He urged his men, including his son, to save themselves.

The submarine commander forced the fishermen to row German sailors to the smack in order to place bombs aboard. One of the Germans drew a revolver and shot the helpless skipper through the head in the presence of his son.

DESERTERS ARE GIVING OFFICERS MUCH TROUBLE

Guards Now Armed With the Winchester Guns at Camp Sherman

2,000 NEGRO SELECTS TO BE GIVEN SPECIAL EXAMINATION

General Pershing Reports Quota Sent to France Physically Unfit

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., March 7.—Alleged deserters are giving Camp Sherman authorities all sorts of trouble. In the past few weeks three have tried to escape, one of them still being at large.

The latest attempt was made yesterday when Private Claude Harmon of Bradford, O., an alleged deserter from Company A, 148th infantry, tried to make his getaway. His guard, Private Joseph Kuliga, of the Third company of the first training battalion, turned his other prisoner over to another guard and chased Harmon two miles south of Chillicothe, where he caught him on a farm. Kuliga returned and secured his other prisoner and had reported to camp within two hours after Harmon got away.

Joe Sager, an alleged deserter from Battery A, 167th field artillery, and Robert O'Malley, said to have deserted from Company A, 112th military police, made their escape some weeks ago. Both men are said to have been deserters from the regular army. O'Malley subsequently beat his way to Montgomery, Ala., where he reported to his organization, according to information available here. Sager is still at large, and the authorities are hunting for him.

As a result of this double escape, prisoner-chasers and guards in the 15th depot brigade were armed with Winchester pump-guns. Officers say with the exception of Harmon's attempted escape yesterday the prisoners have shown no disposition to get away in the face of the guns. The prisoner-chaser guarding Sager and O'Malley had four men in his charge, unloading wood. The two dropped their wood and ran in opposite directions, the guard having no ammunition for his rifle.

Harmon managed to elude his guard by running through a building. Kuliga, whose home is in Woodlawn, Pa., saw him soon after he discovered his escape, but could not fire on him because he was in a gully. Harmon wore a red sweater which enabled Kuliga to keep him in sight and finally capture him. He was placed on a bread-and-water diet for two weeks and is shackled.

Upwards of 2,000 negro select will be given special attention by medical examiners here in the bi-monthly inspection from now on. Word was received at his cantonment indirectly from General Pershing, indicating that the negro select sent to France have not been physically as fit for the arduous service that is necessary. Instructions have been received to eliminate the unfit. The negroes are reported to be particularly susceptible to tuberculosis, old fractures, extreme flat feet, hernia, venereal diseases, and the like. They are said to have had a large percentage of sickness than the white troops in France.

Medical officers here say that most of the physically unfit has already been eliminated from the division, or are in process of elimination. It is not expected that many additional rejections will result here as a result of the instructions.

Three additional organizations were quarantined for scarlet fever as follows: Headquarters company, 332nd infantry; ambulance company, 332nd infantry, and remount station, quartermaster corps. Two units were released from quarantine, Company C, 308th engineers, and the first company of the officers' training camp.

STRATEGY SHOWN BY AN AMERICAN PATROL

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army in France, Wednesday, Mar. 6.—An American patrol comprising one officer and eight men which had been missing since last night in the sector northwest of Toul suddenly emerged from a shell hole close to the German lines today and made a dash across No Man's Land without a shot being fired at them.

It was noon when the patrol carried out its dash to the American line. The seven comrades, looking on, expected every second to see them wiped out and their safe return was an agreeable surprise. They explained that they had lost their way in the dark.

The enemy artillery has not resumed its activity. The American guns today effectively shelled the enemy first lines and also a town behind the German lines, where buildings their troops were using were destroyed.

There was much aerial activity throughout the day, the American anti-aircraft batteries driving off a number of enemy machines.

NEWARK TROOPS UNDER FIRE ON FRENCH FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, March 7.—The old "Fourth regiment," Ohio National Guard, composed of troops from central Ohio and the only Buckeye regiment in France, has been under fire, according to official casualty reports announced by the war department last night.

As the 16th infantry, a unit of the Rainbow division, the regiment left for foreign service last September. No mention of the regiment had been made until last night's casualty list, when the death in action of Private Dyer J. Bird of Richmond, union county, was reported. The accidental death of Sergeant Forest Watson of Kenton, also was announced.

The regiment is commanded by Colonel Benson W. Hough, who was adjutant general of Ohio under the Willis administration.

Many Newark men are members of the 16th infantry, having enlisted during the summer months when the recruiting station for Company B was located in South Park Place. In Company B are over 50 men from this city who left here together for Camp Perry, and were later assigned with the old Fourth regiment as a part of the Rainbow division. Many Newark people visited the troops in camp near New York, and they were among the first troops to leave the country.

While no definite information concerning regiments is given out, the personnel casualty list signifies that the Ohio regiment is seeing action.

CASUALTIES ON AMERICAN SECTOR HAVE BEEN LIGHT

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Army in France, Wednesday, March 6.—An American staff colonel who went with a French raiding party for the purpose of securing information a few days before his men took up their positions in the new American sector on the Lorraine front, met a Prussian lieutenant in an enemy trench and captured him. The colonel with an American captain brought the Prussian officer back to the lines the Americans are now occupying.

The German raid in this new sector occurred on Monday night, a sharp fight taking place in which the Germans suffered a repulse with losses. In it a unit which was among the most recent arrivals displayed the customary American fighting energy and apparently gave the enemy a much warmer reception than he expected.

The American troops here are training with French troops as at the Chemin-des-Dames position. This makes the third American force now facing the enemy.

During several days of the Americans service here the casualties have been extraordinarily light, as the lines are far apart and the position is held by strong points rather than by continuous trenches.

The Prussian lieutenant's capture was the first instance of an enemy officer being taken prisoner by the Americans and also the first occasion upon which an American officer had captured either an enemy officer or a soldier in this sector.

IS NECESSARY FOR SACRIFICES CLAIMS CROXTON

Urges Producers to Forego Opportunity For Large Profit On Seed Corn

REQUESTS OBSERVANCE OF FAIR PRICES FOR SAME

Corn of 1917 Crop Should Be Given Thorough Ear Test

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, March 7.—Ten dollars a bushel is the highest price that should be paid for seed corn unless it is pedigreed stock, the result of years of careful breeding and selection, says the state food administration today. A request for observance of prices that the food administration considers fair has just been issued.

"An excessive price for seed corn threatens to seriously curtail the planting of the 1918 crop," says a statement by Administrator Fred C. Croxton today. "To win the war it is necessary for everyone to make some sacrifices and we urge all producers and dealers to forego the opportunity for larger profits on seed corn so that the largest possible acreage of corn may be grown in Ohio this year. In order that every acre may be planted for which good seed may be found, we request that the following prices and margins be observed in selling and handling the available supply of seed corn in the state."

"All ear tested corn should be sold for not more than five dollars to ten dollars per bushel. In no case should the selling price exceed $10 except for pedigreed stock which is the result of years of careful breeding and selection."

"Old-corn which tests 90 per cent or over by a composite test may also be sold for not more than $10 a bushel."

In most cases the seed corn of both the 1916 and 1917 crops should be sold at or near $5 a bushel. "A margin not to exceed one dollar a bushel exclusive of the cost of transportation, testing and bags is considered a fair margin for the dealer in seed corn."

Respecting testing, the administration says: "Corn from the 1917 crop should not be offered for sale as seed corn unless ear tested, excepting in unusual cases where a composite test allows 90 per cent, or over. For the 1916 crop a composite test should be sufficient if the corn tests 90 per cent, or over. If less than 90 per cent, germination is shown, then an ear test should be made."

"A satisfactory composite test may be made by selecting at least three samples—one sample from the upper, one from the lower and one from the middle part of the crib or lot. Each sample should be tested separately, taking one to three grains from each of 100 ears. The three tests should then be averaged to arrive at a fair valuation of the lot."

The bulletin of the administration today is the first dealing in any way with seed corn prices.

Several weeks ago, the administration caused the arrest of two Fayette county men, charging them with violating the sense of the food act by buying corn for a low price and, without any effort or exertion on their part, selling it for exorbitant prices. The statement today, it was said, was issued because of many inquiries, after consultation with various departments interested in the subject. It is directed particularly to producers and dealers.

PUBLIC STATEMENT OF AMBASSADOR FRANCIS TO RUSSIAN PEOPLE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Vologda, Russia, March 6.—In a public statement to the people of Vologda today on the international situation as it affects Russia, David R. Francis, the American ambassador, said:

"America has no plans or desires for territorial conquest in Russia. While the present government has never been formally recognized by my government or any of the allies, both Premier Lenine and Foreign Minister Trotsky are aware that I had recommended to my government that it recognize any government the Russian people might select and also would earnestly urge that material assistance be rendered to such government, provided that it would continue the war against the central powers. The success of Germany would result in the loss by the Russian people of all the liberties they have gained by the revolution. Consequently the free people of the United States sincerely hope that the severe terms of the separate peace imposed by Germany will not be ratified by the Russian people."

BONE DRY FOR PERMANENT NAVAL TRAINING POSTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 7.—Eight permanent naval training posts, including the naval academy at Annapolis, are set in dry zones five miles wide, regardless of intervening cities and towns, by the terms of a general order published today by Secretary Daniels. The date for the establishment of the zones was not announced, but the secretary in his statement said the step had become necessary to protect young sailors gathered for training.

In addition to the naval academy, the dry zones will apply to the training stations at Great Lakes, Ill., Newport, R. I., Norfolk, Va., Hampton Roads, the training camp at Mare Island, Cal., and the marine stations at Quantico, Va., and Parris Island, S. C. It was stated that the order might be made to apply to other camps or stations at a later date.

The order forbids the sale or giving away of any alcoholic liquor, including wine or beer, or the importation of such liquor except for medical or sacramental purposes. An exception is made of the serving of liquor in a private house to guests or members of the family.

Secretary Daniels referred at length to conditions at Newport and at Vallejo, Cal., near the Mare Island station, which, he said, local authorities had been vainly urged to correct.

VAST AMOUNT OF INSURANCE FOR ARMY AND NAVY

Washington, March 7.—More than $12,000,000,000 worth of insurance has been written on the lives of American soldiers, sailors and nurses by the war risk insurance bureau, Secretary McAdoo announced today. Up to the close of business, March 6, 1,392,324 applications, representing insurance of $11,256,448,500, has already been received at the bureau and late reports from the American forces in France together with insurance now in transit from distant points indicate that the total written to date is well above twelve billion dollars covering more than 1,500,000 persons in the military or naval service. In February alone more than $5,000,000,000 worth was written.

The average amount of insurance applied for is $8,085. The maximum permitted is $10,000 and the minimum $1,000.

Final figures show that the United States army, both here and abroad is well above ninety per cent. insured. In many camps 99 per cent. of the personnel is protected by government insurance.

HUGE ICEBERG IN THE NORTH RIVER

New York, March 7.—A great mass of ice estimated to be 500 by 1,000 feet in area and four feet under water, and officially designated by the harbor police as an iceberg, was given a wide berth by tug boats and other craft in North river today. Patrol boats were unable to nose the huge mass into the shore and police boats had to form an advance guard to warn vessels of the monster's approach.

GERMANS WERE REPULSED BY THE SAMMIES

Sharp Fight Takes Place and Americans Give Raiders a Warm Reception

OUR BOYS TRAINING WITH SEASONED FRENCH TROOPS

American Colonel Captures Prussian Officer In a German Trench

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)
Further details of the engagement of Monday night, in which American troops occupying a new position in French Lorraine beat off a German raiding party show that a sharp fight took place in which the Americans, belonging to a unit among the most recent arrivals in France, gave the Germans an unexpectedly warm reception, repulsing them with losses. The Americans here, it is revealed, are in training with French troops, as are those on the Aisne front, north of the Chemin des Dames. As yet only the third American group, that east of St. Mihiel, is holding a sector of its own.

The capture of a Prussian lieutenant by an American colonel took place shortly before the Americans entered the new position in Lorraine; the American officer getting his man in a German trench where he had gone with a French raiding party in search of information.

With the cessation of the German advance into Russia, military operations in the European war fields are again confined to trench raids, artillery bombardments and corollary aerial activities.

Both sides are almost equally active in the newly-developed raiding tactics, in which the artillery arm is freely employed by way of preparation, and support. The German raiders, however, were somewhat more aggressive than usual during the last 36 hours, according to the indications in the official reports which reveal, through the German press, virtually all along the line from Flanders to the Vosges.

The artillery fighting along the French lines centered chiefly in the Verdun region where it was accompanied by raids which the French repulsed. Bombardments also have occurred at various points, but there is no mention of Americans in this district having been driven at by the German attack.

OLD PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfil the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitated to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that, so many people claim, it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Newark Daily Advocate. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Advertisement.

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring and enough to wet the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

CHILD SOBBED AS ATTORNEYS PLEAD FOR HUPP

penalty under the indictment—life imprisonment. The court adjourned at noon for luncheon. Attorney Boyd will present the final address of the defense this afternoon, and County Prosecutor Doerfler will close the case for the state.

It is expected the case will go to the jury about 4 o'clock.

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, March 7.—When criminal court opened this morning it was generally believed Elmer Hupp, the wealthy oil operator, charged with second degree murder of Charles L. Joyce would know his fate late this afternoon or early this evening. Hupp testified that he shot and killed Joyce when upon returning home unexpectedly on January 10 he found the latter in company with Mrs. Hupp in her bedroom and became "crazed."

Judge Kennedy preceded arguments by counsel this morning with a brief statement of alternative verdicts open to the jury and will follow County Prosecutor Doerfler, who will deliver the final address to the jury for the state, with his final summing up.

Attorney William L. David made the initial argument for the defense. He was followed by Assistant County Prosecutor Babka who made the first argument for the state. Attorney William H. Boyd made the main argument for Hupp.

By agreement with the judge, counsel limited their arguments to two hours for each side.

Unless the deliberations of the jurors are protracted beyond "a reasonable hour" tonight, Judge Kennedy asserted there will be no "sealed verdict." He said he will remain within easy reach of the court in order that Hupp may be relieved of the suspense at the earliest possible moment.

Judge Kennedy said the case will go to the jury at three o'clock this afternoon. If the jurors are unable to arrive at a verdict before a reasonable hour tonight, a sealed verdict will be ordered by the court. In that case Hupp will learn his fate tomorrow morning when the verdict is opened by Judge Kennedy, provided the jury reaches a decision tonight.

Hupp's wife, Mrs. Ethel Hupp, love for whom, according to the slayer, caused him to kill Joyce, was at home today. She has not been in the court room since the trial started a week ago. The little daughter, Consuelo, 14 years old, was spared the ordeal of testifying. Hupp's two brothers, Charles and Frederick Hupp, of Irvine, Ky., and Logan, Ohio, respectively, were interested spectators in the court room while the attorneys were making their arguments.

Testimony of alienists introduced yesterday afternoon before the state and the defense closed the case showed that Hupp was "mentally unsound" at the time he shot Joyce.

In opening the arguments for the defense today Attorney David told the jury that Hupp shot and killed Joyce while he was "emotionally insane."

Assistant county prosecutor Babka in the opening address for the state told the jury that the claim of the slayer that he shot Joyce to protect his home and family did not justify him in the deed he had done.

was suspended on Tuesday. Petrograd dispatches declare, and its resumption on Wednesday appears to have been only to accomplish the consolidation of the German line delineated in the peace treaty on the Estonian and Livonian.

Addresses made at a soldiers' and workmen's meeting in Moscow indicate that there is a full understanding among the leaders of the Russian masses, at least, of the nature of the peace Germany has exacted from the Bolshevik government. One of the speakers declared the new frontiers constitute a "ring of iron around revolutionary Russia, which Germany intended to crush through her economic demands."

A Record Made By Little School Near Fallsburg

There is a little school in Fallsbury township that is establishing a record in the War Savings Stamp campaign that is perhaps not duplicated anywhere in the state. The school is taught by Miss Inez Heft and numbers twelve pupils. It is the "Meadow View" school and is in Supt. Howell's district. Prof. Howell has talked to the pupils and to the teachers throughout his district on the value of War Savings Stamps and the sales reports show that he is doing effective work. Miss Heft's little school of twelve pupils reports sales amounting to $137 or about $1.50 per capita. If everybody in Licking county will show the same interest and patriotism that Miss Heft's pupils are manifesting, Old Licking will go "over the top" quickly. The sales of stamps must average $20 this year for every man woman and child in this county. It means the sale of $4,000 worth of stamps every work day in 1918. When everybody learns that these war stamps are better than money because they grow in value and are not taxable and realizes that Uncle Sam guarantees to pay back the money at anytime upon ten days' notice the sales will increase. To date the Licking county sales amount to about $200,000.

SUSPENSION OF FUEL OFFICE FOR PRESENT

DEATH OF GREAT IRISH LEADER IS ALMOST DISASTER

(Associated Press Telegram)

LONDON, Wednesday, March 6.—The death of John Redmond at the moment when the convention which is to settle the future of Ireland is having its most momentous sessions, is considered in political circles to be almost a disaster. During the weeks which the Irish convention has been busy trying to find a solution to the Irish problem Mr. Redmond exercised a great moderating influence and if, as Dublin dispatches say, there again is a prospect of agreement, he must be given considerable credit for this state of affairs.

In fact, since he took over the leadership of the Irish nationalists on the retirement of Parnell, Mr. Redmond has been among those Irishmen who fought for a settlement of the home rule question by parliamentary means and when the act granting self government finally became a law in 1914 it was a great triumph for him and received recognition throughout the world. The war prevented the act from being put into force and while this was a great disappointment, as he would have preferred to say: "The English democracy."

His speech in the house of commons supporting the government's decision to enter the war because of the invasion of Belgium greatly enhanced his reputation in England where he had always been popular and respected.

Mr. Redmond declined a seat in the coalition cabinet of 1915, not because he had become less ardent in support of the entente's war aims, but because he feared that to do so might injure Ireland and his party. Since then his illness and family bereavements took him out of the public eye, except on occasions when Irish questions requiring his attention.

The Irish convention adjourned for two hours today when it heard of Mr. Redmond's death.

JAMBURG TAKEN BY THE GERMANS

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, March 7.—The Germans have captured Jamburg, each of Narva, while the Turco-German offensive is continuing beyond Trebizond, says a Russian official agency dispatch received here today. This action, adds the statement, is despite the official announcement by the German high command that hostilities against Russia have ceased.

Jamburg is on the railway line from Revel to Petrograd and only 68 miles from the Russian capital. The Germans were reported in yesterday's dispatches to have halted at Narva, approximately 100 miles from Petrograd.

Trebizond is on the Black Sea coast of Turkish Armenia. The Turks were reported to have reached the Trebizond region in their offensive when the recent peace treaty was signed.

The Bolshevik government has been showing concern over reports that the central powers were continuing on the aggressive against the Russians despite the conclusion of peace under the recently signed treaty. Petrograd dispatches on Wednesday announced that Ensin Krylenko, the Bolshevik commander-in-chief, had sent a message to the German and Austrian chief commanders declaring the German and Austrian troops were still fighting and asking whether the German high command had taken all the steps necessary for the cessation of hostilities.

TO SEND GREAT FIELD ARMY FOR TRENCH WARFARE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, March 7.—Based upon the three-line method of trench warfare evolved in France, the war department, it was learned today, has approved a plan of organization which fixes six divisions as the strength of an army corps.

Three or more corps will constitute a field army, and the immediate purpose of the department is to complete the organization of the first field army in France in the shortest possible time to give General Pershing the strength to hold a fully "Americanized" sector of the front. The plan leaves to General Pershing the determination of the number of corps and the number of field armies needed, and also authorizes him to recommend commanders for the highest units.

By the six division army corps plan each corps will occupy a front sector with two divisions, while two replacement or reinforcement lines of two divisions each will back them up. The effect is to produce the line of depth necessary for the type of warfare now in progress.

Replacement troops sent from the United States are led into the war machine in France at the third line. They move forward to regular order as their training progresses and arrive at front line trenches to fill in casualty gaps only when they have been thoroughly seasoned.

To fulfill the functions of an army corps it has been found necessary to place under a corps commander, in addition to his six infantry divisions, approximately 30,000 men known as corps troops. These comprise artillery units, engineers, and all types of service battalions for work on the communication lines of their own corps. A similar organization of about 130,000 men is necessary for each field army of three corps. These field army troops maintain the lines from the advance base of the army back to the source of supplies. In case of General Pershing's forces this line connects with the ocean transport service.

Included in the corps troops of many units of heavy artillery equipped with guns ranging up to 10 and 12 inches in calibre, both for fixed emplacement and for mobile artillery. This comprises the artillery service of the corps. The great general artillery reserve of the field army is under direct command of the army commander and included in his so-called army troops.

The organization schedules show that General Pershing is to be equipped eventually with artillery of all calibres on a scale not heretofore dreamed of. The proportion of artillery to army troops adopted by the war department is greater than that of either the British or French armies and the tendency of the department is to increase the big guns.

Included in the heavy artillery assigned to corps of field army commanders will be whole brigades of self-propelled guns, mobile howitzers of six, eight, 10, and even 13-inch calibre, rifles of similar size, including heavy long-range naval guns, and probably as soon as they are available, batteries of the monster American 16-inch naval rifles recently developed. With this array of guns, enemy depots, 20 miles or more in the rear of his trenches could be kept under bombardment.

FIRST SELECTS OF SECOND DRAFT LEAVE FOR CAMP

The county's quota of drafted men to fill vacancies existing at Camp Greenleaf, Ga., was again changed from four to six men. The men were to leave Newark over the Baltimore & Ohio lines this afternoon at 1:30, but the train was two hours late and did not depart until 3:30 o'clock. They go as far as Cincinnati over this line and there change to the Queen & Crescent line for their destination—Chattanooga, Tenn. Camp Greenleaf is situated in the Chickamauga National Park, 10 miles across the line in Georgia. Fort Oglethorpe is also located in this park.

The party was composed of Bert E. Thompson and Guy Rodes of Granville, Garner Bishop, Ralph Bishop and Arthur Nichols of Alexandria, and Lester Nickel of Utica. The first five named all volunteered. These are the first men in Class 1 of the second draft to leave for camp.

RECOMMEND INCREASE FOR THE PENSIONERS.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 7.—Substantial increases in pay for railroad employees retired on pensions were suggested to the railroad wage commission today by Earl H. Morton, president of the Order of Railroad Station Agents. It was the first suggestion that others than active employees should be included in the commission's recommendations for increases.

HEALTH CONDITIONS IMPROVE FOR CAMPS.

Washington, March 7.—Continued improvement of health conditions in the army camps and cantonments in the United States is shown in the detailed report of the surgeon general for the week ending March 1. The death rate—6.6 per 1,000—is the lowest recorded since November 16, 1917.

"Pneumonia continues to decline in all the camps," the report says.

Lyman Beecher, formerly salesman with the H. B. Coen company, has accepted a position with the Overland agency in West Main street.

ROYALTY'S PRIVILEGE is now yours

In Europe when a monarch invites an opera star to appear before him it is recognized as a command. It would never occur to a artist to refuse. This has always been one of royalty's prerogatives. But now, thanks to the perfection of this marvelous instrument, it's a privilege within the grasp of every American. You can summon the great stars of the Metropolitan Opera to appear in your own home. You are as potent as any monarch who ever mounted a throne. So far as the enjoyment of music is concerned there's not a shade of difference between hearing an Edison artist in the flesh and hearing that same artist's Re-Creation on

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

"That's a pretty strong claim," you say. Nevertheless every word is literal truth. And the famous Edison tone tests have proved it. Before audiences totalling more than 2,000,000, some 30 Edison stars have sung in direct comparison with the instrument and challenged the listeners to say when the living voice ceased and the Re-Creation continued alone. Not one person has succeeded in distinguishing between artist and instrument.

ONE ENLISTMENT WAS SECURED FOR SPECIAL SERVICE

Chief Electrician R. O. Keck, recruiting officer of the navy, secured one enlistment during the two days he was in the city. There were a number of men, who called at his office making inquiries about this branch of the service and will probably enlist upon his return next week.

Frank Gehring, 53 Wallace street, enlisted as a third class fireman and was given the preliminary physical examination here and was sent to Parkersburg, W. Va., for the final examination. If he passes he will be sent back to Newark to await orders.

For these construction units for immediate service abroad the government made a call for 400 mechanics for aviation construction work in Ireland, 750 for the same work in France and 250 for radio work abroad.

After being accepted for this service the men will be sent to the receiving ship at Philadelphia, where they will be kept intact as a unit so that they will not be diverted to general service, each man will be furnished with proper credentials so that he can be recognized as being enlisted under this category.

AUCTION SALE FOR RED CROSS AT JOHNSTOWN

Johnstown, O., March 7.—The plans have not all been completed yet concerning the Red Cross auction sale Friday and Saturday, March 15 and 16, but there are things in the air.

A very interesting meeting was held at the Independent office last Saturday night and much was accomplished but there is much work yet to be done. This is a big undertaking for this section but we are big enough for the job and we must not lay down and go to sleep at the first sign of difficulty.

Other communities have held similar stunts and have netted large amounts and the way they did it was by an organization that was nearly perfect with every person in that community a helper.

The plan that will probably be carried out will be something like the following: When you bring your articles to be placed on sale call at the office of R. C. Frazier and he will unlock the lower room of the opera house where all articles will be sold. The day of the sale, weather permitting, these articles will be sold from a platform in front of the opera house. This will allow all to partake in the bidding. If we were to hold the sale in some room we could not find one large enough to contain the people and articles to be sold.

ALLEGED "DIPS" PLACED UNDER A HEAVY BOND

Ben Weiss and L. J. Sandford who were taken off a C. & O. train here for pocket picking will be given a preliminary hearing in the municipal court at Zanesville before Judge M. M. Oshe. Their bonds were fixed at $3000 each. The men pleaded not guilty when arraigned Wednesday morning. They are alleged to have secured $250 from a Belgian, who was on the train.

It was thought that Weiss and Sandford were the same men wanted at Galion for jumping their bonds after being arrested for pocket picking there, but a statement was made by the sheriff and prosecutor of Crawford county, after they had viewed the men at the Zanesville prison Wednesday afternoon that they were not the men who had jumped the $1000 bonds.

GRANVILLE

(Special to the Advocate.)

Granville, March 7.—"Beethoven as Melodist" was the phase of the first composer's work presented by the Women's Music Club Wednesday afternoon.

It was the most enjoyable program of the series. It was under the competent leadership of Mrs. Karl Eschman, with additional touches by Mrs. C. B. White, a group of songs and compositions offered.

The opening number was the Eighth Symphony, one of the musical masterpieces, the shortest of Beethoven, sometimes called the "merry eighth," "the little symphony," the ballet symphony, in reference to the happy mood of the composer. This eight-hand composition was given fine expression by Mrs. Susan Edwards, Mrs. Margaret Ashton, Mrs. Stickney and Mrs. Soule.

"To the Distant Beloved," one of Beethoven's most beautiful lyrics, was sung by Mrs. J. F. Baker, of Salem.

31, No. 2, was played by a visiting artist, Miss Bessie Larkin of Newark, who received an ovation of applause. Under her magic touch the instrument became a sentient thing conveying a real message to every heart. "The Quail," as sung by Mrs. Everett Johnston, was charming. "Six variations on an Original Theme, Op. 34," found adequate expression under the facile hands of Mrs. C. B. White, a group of songs and compositions offered.

"The Distant Beloved," one of Beethoven's most beautiful lyrics, was sung by Mrs. J. F. Baker, of Salem.

31, No. 2, was played by a visiting artist, Miss Bessie Larkin of Newark, who received an ovation of applause. Under her magic touch the instrument became a sentient thing conveying a real message to every heart. "The Quail," as sung by Mrs. Everett Johnston, was charming. "Six variations on an Original Theme, Op. 34," found adequate expression under the facile hands of Mrs. C. B. White, a group of songs and compositions offered.

COMFORT FOR WORKING PEOPLE.

A laboring man writes to an exchange in a bitter way, protesting against the discomfort and even sufferings that many hard-working people have to put up with. He moved to a certain city and found houses and apartments very scarce. He finally had to put up with a flat where the water system was all out of order, where heating and plumbing arrangements were very poor. He was informed that as soon as warm weather comes, the place will be infested with vermin.

The problem suggested by the above is one that exists in most industrial towns. There may be houses enough, but some of them are probably miserable old tenements on which no money has been spent for years.

A great deal of the labor shortage at the shipyards has been due to this cause. Workmen would be found to take these jobs, but the quarters in which they had to live were so uncomfortable that they got discouraged and quit.

Feeling this situation, a good many of the larger industries are taking up the problem of getting houses for their workers. Some of them put up and sell little dwellings or rent them at cost. This, of course, takes a large amount of capital. But it must pay abundantly. If a worker can find a comfortable home near his factory, he will think some time before he is assured to leave by offers from other places.

The time has gone by when people will live contentedly in unsanitary and badly-repaired houses. Our people have been brought up in our public schools, which are usually clean. When they are asked to live in tenements that are in bad condition, it goes against the grain. It is one of the problems of modern business, to see that its workers have comfortable places to live in. Better sanitary inspection will help. But it will take the spirit of enterprise on the part of the business community, to see that plenty of comfortable homes are provided.

THE WIRELESS.

Early in the war some little British monitors, firing from out of sight over a jungle, hit the great German cruiser, Konigsberg, on the seventh shot. They were directed by wireless, and the speedy destruction of that great ship by these little foes showed what wireless can do. Unfortunately wireless is not only a great help in our battle operations, but it is the easy weapon for our foes to use in this country. Some of the leaks to the enemy may go from little wireless plants on the roofs of houses in the sea-coast cities. It would not seem difficult for a force of submarines to lie along our coast and keep up this communication. They could keep concealed daytimes, make no effort to molest our ships, and devote themselves to getting and relaying news. It is well-known that a good many wireless plants have been found in secret operation. Also, how do the enemy spies located all over the country work their highly systematized plan? Do they always communicate by mail, telegraph, telephone, with many chances of detection? Wireless would seem safer. A plant can be put up anywhere on the roof of a lovely farm house. It can convey the news of movements of food and munition trains. In some way the plotters seem to know when there are a lot of cars of grain or potatoes on some lonely sidetrack that could easily be burned.

It was fortunate that when the war broke out our country had more than 100,000 wireless amateurs. That provides a great force to operate our signal services in France. But some of these boys are from families of enemy sympathizers at home and they are a peril. This is a danger to be watched all over the country. The unauthorized operation of a wireless plant, even of the most amateur appearing kind, is ground for serious suspicion, and should be reported at once to the authorities.

THE KNITTING PAYS.
Some people have been inclined to sneer at the fever of knitting with which our patriotic women have been seized. Theoretically it might seem more economical to have all this work done in factories on labor-saving machines.

But practically, the following computation points in an opposite direction. One woman says she has knitted 41 sweaters. The only cash expense about it was $75 for material—$1.33 per sweater.

Now one of those sweaters would be as comfortable to wear as one for which you would pay $6 to $8 in a store. It might not be knitted quite as evenly, but probably it would have better material.

Of course when you buy a sweater at a store, you have to pay retail prices, while the government could buy at wholesale. But when you consider that the factories are driven with war-work, the government would not set a low price. It is difficult to believe that these sweaters could be bought for less than $3 to $4 a piece, and they might cost more.

Hence, it looks as if voluntary labor was by far the cheapest way to provide the men with the knitted goods that will add enormously to their comfort in cold weather. And it helps pay for the war as we go along. If the government bought all this material, the cost would have to be added to our war debt, and we would be paying interest on it for many years. Furthermore, the material gets to the boys quicker than if it went through the rushed factories and government red-tape.

So it looks like good business in every way, for the government to look to the kind hearts and ready hands of voluntary workers for this form of supplies. The number of women seen knitting everywhere is a splendid response on the part of the women of the nation to this call. And the women of Licking county working through the Red Cross have done splendid work during the past year.

Life is certainly attractive to the German spies. If they don't get caught they will get all kinds of honors from the kaiser, and if they do, they will be interned at our nice winter resorts and every want carefully looked after.

The fact that the men folks will sing "Keep the Home Fires Burning," with tremendous enthusiasm doesn't prove that you can get them to go home and saw up some wood for those fires.

It's certainly fine to sing about "Keeping the Home Fires Burning," but how are the boys to know about them if you don't send them The Advocate?

Now all that is asked of the shipbuilders is to have a few strikeless days.

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM.
There is no inspired title to this psalm and none is needed, for it records no special event and needs no other key than that which every Christian may find in his own bosom. It is David's heavenly pastoral: a surpassing ode, which none of the daughters of music can excel. The claron of war here gives place to the pipe of peace, and he who bewailed the woes of the shepherd tunelessly rehearses the joys of the flock. Sitting under a spreading tree, with his flock around him, we picture David singing this unrivaled pastoral with a heart as full of gladness as it could hold: or, if the psalm be the product of his later years, we are sure that he often returned in contemplation to the lonely water brooks, which rippled among the pastures of the wilderness, where in early days he had been wont to dwell. This is the pearl of psalms, whose soft and pure radiance delights all: a pearl of which Helicon need not be ashamed, though Jordan claims it.—Charles H. Spurgeon.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.
Due southeast, alone in the sky, the wicket of constellation Leo is conspicuous in the evening. The scieles has only six naked-eye stars; seven are shown on some star maps.

The greatest man is he who chooses right with the most invincible resolution; who resists the sorest temptation from within and without; who bears the heaviest burdens cheerfully; who is calmest in storms, and most fearless under menaces and frowns; whose religion, on truth, on virtue, and on God, is most unaltering.—Seneca.

Spring Is Coming.
It's funny how a common little fly-colored robin, in spring can set our winter-logged old silly hearts a-throbbing.

Ask Col. Wells.
Aunt Caline says:—Last nite just as I an Zeke was about to set down to our supper Less Braine's brother, which he is Had, he-come in so I had to go an' git another plait for him to eat supper with us. Well, after the aidge o' his appetite had wore off a bit he slacked up work with his nite an' says he, "I suppose you heard o' the strange thing that happened over at Ura Boyles' yesterday," he says.

"No," says I. "What were it?" says Had. "Had A. he was up in Newark an' he went into a place up there where they sell fish an' he bought a mess an' brang them home an' handed 'em over to his wife to clean. Well, pretty soon he heard a offle yell outen the kitchen an' Ura she yells out, 'Had, come here!' An' Had he hot-footed it out there an' there stood Ura pail as detteth a dif'more ring in her hand which she had found in the innards of a fish she was a-cleanin'." "Fer the land sakes," says I, "What kind o' fish were it, Had?" "I dunno as I ritely no jest what kind o' fish it were," he says, "but I should think it might be a ring perch, don't you reckon?" he says.

GOD AS WE SEE HIM.
That heaven is a kind of General Headquarters and God the Commander-in-Chief is the way Comingsby Dawson, lieutenant with the Canadian Field Artillery, explains the religion of the trenches—for he says there is religion there. He writes in the current Good Housekeeping:

"When we think of God, we think of Him in just about the same way that a Tommy in the front line thinks of Sir Douglas Haig. Heaven is a kind of General Headquarters. All that the Tommy in the front line knows of an offensive is that orders have reached him, through the appointed authorities, that at zero hour he will climb out of his trench and go over the top to meet a reasonable chance of wounds and death. He does not say, 'I don't know whether I will climb out. I never saw Sir Douglas Haig. There mayn't be any such person. I want to have a chat with him first. If I agree with him, after that I may go over the top and, then again, I may not. We'll see about it.'"

"Instead, he attributes to his Commander-in-Chief the same patriotism, love of duty, and courage which he himself tries to practice. He believes that if he and Sir Douglas Haig were to change places, Sir Douglas Haig would be quite as willing to sacrifice himself. He obeys; he doesn't question."

"That's the way every Tommy and officer thinks of God—as a Commander-in-Chief whom he has never seen, but whose orders he blindly carries out."

"The religion of the trenches is not a religion which analyzes God with impertinent speculation. It is not religion which takes up much of His time. It's a religion which teaches men to carry on stoutly and to say: 'I've tried to do my bit as best I know how. I guess God knows it. If I go west today, He'll remember that—remember how I never let a pal down and how I played the game. So I guess He'll forget about my sins and take me to Himself.'"

"That is the simple religion of the trenches as I have learned it—a religion not without glory: to carry on as bravely as you know how, and to trust God without worrying Him."

FARM LABOR.
(Collier's Weekly.)
Our American farms have always been short-handed. We have had plenty of land. We have had no peasant classes. Instead we have had a certain restless migrating ingenuity and ambition which send the farm-grown boy and girl to the city in search of different and better fortunes—especially of different fortunes. McCormick, Ford, and the rest of the inventors stopped the gap by devising various useful types of machinery. But our war-stimulated industries have offered glittering rewards to the countrymen thus trained in mechanical work. Voluntary enlistment and the "selective" draft have further thinned the ranks of our food army. They are shorter-handed now in the country than they ever were before.

And now we all lift up our voices and howl for the bigger crops than our Allied world needs and will need. The need will not be met by hold-

Don't Wait.
One cannot wholly agree with W. H. Taft that spies, incendiaries, bomb droppers and munitions tamperers should be backed up against a blank wall at sunrise. As the late Thomas Jefferson once remarked, never put off until tomorrow what you can do today.—Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

We are told not to let the sun go down on our wrath and we should think sunset of the day they were caught would be about the proper time.

Did You Know
That a quern was a primitive mill for grinding corn? It is a contrivance of great antiquity, and so well adapted to the wants of a primitive people that it is perpetuated to the present day in remote districts of Ireland and some of the islands off the coast of Scotland. The usual form of quern consists of two circular flat stones, the upper one pierced in the center with a narrow funnel, and revolving on a wooden or metal pin inserted in the lower. The upper stone is occasionally ornamented with various devices; in the Roman period it is sometimes unadorned with grooves radiating from the center. In using the quern, the grain was dropped with one hand into the central opening, while the other upper stone was revolved by means of a stick inserted in a small opening near the edge.

We Vote For Shakespeare.
There was a young lady from Macon Who said "Shakespeare was written By Bacon."

But a friend of "the bard" Snote her ear very hard, Remarking, that's where you're mistaken.

"I'll Say It Is!"
When the frost is on the stovepipe While the gas (?) burns in the range, There's a state of things existing That is surely weird and strange.

When the buckwheat batter sitsing In the pan and makes a change, Hoping it would rise ere morning Freezes over good and tight.

When the mercury goes sliding Till it reaches twenty-eight, The condition seems to warrant That you swiftly emigrate.

When overcoats and arctics, Ear muffs, too, are donned in fright, And you've got to keep in blankets Ere you, too, freeze over-night.

I say the time has come to pack Your grip and make a change, When the frost is on the stove pipe While the gas burns in the range.

LEO PRIOR WRITES OF EXPERIENCES AT BIG CHILLICOTHE CANTONMENT
(Special to The Advocate.)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, March 7.—The folks back home and civilians from almost everywhere who have visited us at some time—can hardly fail to be impressed with this one observation—that the men are enjoying their experiences in Camp Sherman. Real American boys who have taken up with zest and enthusiasm their preparation for the big tasks ahead of them—a fact of cheer for "The People" which that word optimism cannot exaggerate. In conclusion an appropriate point of comment is that "We are glad in cheer of our experience; glad that we are going 'Over There'; glad in fellowship as comrades, a conscious force that men feel when each knows from tried experience that he can rely always on his 'buddies.'"

The association of Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus certainly rise to their opportunity in meeting the problems of spiritual service among the Soldiers in Camp Sherman. It is impossible to summarize in a few words the impression of the good they do—yet a message to the folks back home of thousands whom the writer has seen in "devout prayer in their halls—tell the story in the way of life in Christian living. The finest feeling has been shown between the Y. M. C. A. associations and the Knights of Columbus. The Episcopal church—and the fine ministers who have spoken to the boys of various denominations, Lutheran, Reformed, Presbyterian, Baptist and others. War causes a spiritual enthusiasm. A thought for the soul.

Ex-President Taft, distinguished statesman, visited Camp Sherman for two days. He was the guest of Brigadier General Perkins while here. Many of Battery B boys heard the Ex-President and the substance of his message was "Work" and "Discipline" and once you have these, you have all the adaptability for the American soldier and for American manhood.

Many good shows are seen at the Liberty theatre in the Camp. Richard Carle's show of girls, fun and music, "Furs and Frills" gave good satisfaction. A comic opera, "Pirates of Penzance" given Lima's St. Rose Choral society was fine. "Daddy Long Legs," "Mutt and Jeff," and others were also here.

Enlisted men are prohibited from leaving in their possession leather leggings or anything not issued by the government. Packages from "home" as eats also are prohibited.

Captain Post who has been in attendance at the Artillery school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma is expected to return in a few days with a "glad welcome" from Battery B.

Battery B is now being taught many important things about artillery and as soon as the weather conditions will permit more extensive training will be the rule. What a battery has to do going into a position—what is expected of each and every one and what their respective duties are—is experienced by "all day hikes" which are to be the rule one day of each week from now on.

All boys from Newark wish to express our most hearty appreciation to Trades and Labor Assembly for the large contribution of London Sports cigarettes.

The thoughtfulness of so kind a remembrance will be one of the proudest memories.

Comrades Corporal Merle Orr and Buglar, a Ralph Shaw have returned from a 10 days' furlough. Cupid, that matrimonial bliss was the reason. The battery congratulates and wishes joy and happiness.

Lieut. Carpenter who has been absent from the battery for a period of six weeks has returned.

The entire 324th regiment is a little proud of recent promotions. Corporal Gainer of Headquarters Company is now Sergeant Gainer. John Weiler is now Battalion Sergeant Major of the regiment. Both are mighty fine fellows, possessing the best of qualifications.

It is with much regret that Battery B bids adieu to Frank Payne who has been given his honorable discharge. Our tribute to Frank is that he is one fine fellow. The goodbye salutation in fellowship is good luck.

Those who make up the special detail in Battery B from Newark are Corporals Jerome Norpel and Merle Orr, Privates Catt, Bernard Kates, Ed Fallon, Shiplet, Russell Harvey, Thomas Henry, George Coyle, Turner, Charles Gardner, Maurice Floyd.

The following men from Newark form detail in charge of reel cart in case of fire: Sergeant Victor Smith, Corporal Orr, Privates Hansbrough, W. B. Pryor, Francis Hanban, Jack Samolio, John Kappas, Carl Heintz and Henry Staveh.

A few briefs.
A new moving picture Theatre is being erected just across the way from Battery B.

Our boys think the 324th Regiment has the best location in the camp.

The Camp Sherman Laundry and the big remount station are most interesting concerns to visit.

The community house is the most popular place for the boys.

Every comrade has two comforts, always—mother's and sweetheart's letters. A card or a letter means so much happiness for us.

Lieutenant Hess is the song leader of the 324th Regiment.

The Knights of Columbus could not have sent more popular secretaries than William Lavin and Hugh Bradley. Both are fine fellows.

The Battery's "Gossip News" just talk is contributed to by every one.

Ray Wintermute received a letter from Jesse Chilcote "Somewhere in France." Jess is all O. K.

A funny sight, Dig Sensabaugh 6 feet 2 inches walking between two little soldiers—Shorty Hale and Shorty Looker—both a little over five feet in height.

Corporal William Howard has gone to Kenosha, Wisconsin for instruction in the motor school there.

A review of the 324th Regiment was held at the Ball Field last Saturday and Colonel Ashburn was well pleased.

Battery B will go to the Range about 11 miles southeast of Chillicothe about March the first. A real Howitzer has arrived.

Formal guard will happen every day as soon as weather permits.

Due to the breakage of the Camp's water system plant, one bath a week is the rule.

Each Battery in our Regiment has experienced the second hike. Licking county sent a good healthy bunch of boys here. Battery B, seems to be immune from a quarantine.

Washington's birthday, as a holiday was most welcome.

A very good program is the rule each evening at the Y. M. C. A. Music, pictures and lectures.

The writer is Battery B's correspondent for the 324th Division News, Camp Sherman News paper. As a sample of the style of dope the following is taken from a recent issue Battery B.

Sometimes it is not the largest adventure, not the largest event that evokes the most utterance in our battery of the week end. Yet the vision that excludes all else from the mind was the awe inspired by the "perfect beauty" last Thursday of our "Big Hike". The next great impression was the surpassing fitness of our battery. Lieutenant Brennan, with three markers started from the battery about 7 a. m. followed shortly afterward by Lieutenant Horneal and special detail. At 45 Major Clark, Lieutenant Limbach, Lieutenant Thompson and the battery. The boys had no knowledge of their destination, no conception "Just where" only that they had started on a marching adventure on ice. In about an hour a place called Viewpoint was reached, some five miles out. On arrival guns were stocked tents were pitched and trenches for fireplaces were dug and many other things military done. Then the entire battery was put into action making trenches, gun emplacements and aiming points. Noon and dinner each one cooling his bacon and potatoes. Photographer Miller then took a picture of the battery. Afterward the work was continued until 2 p. m. when "halt" was the command of Major Clark, who said that the battery did particularly well. Camp was broken. Battery B is a little proud of its special detail which did splendidly. The first long hike remains a pleasant memory.

Sergeant McFarland is now our supply Sergeant and the battery is proud. He is a prince, a mild mannered sort of a fellow and when he says "I haven't any" his sincerity is plainly evident.

One of the shrewdest soldiers is Top Sergeant Messenger—the reason given for this characterization is that any private can go to him for advice on any subject and he will never afterward refer to the matter not even to ask whether he was right or wrong.

Sergeant Simpson has built a crying room where Corporal Oberfield and Private "Shorty" Looker hold salvation services there every Wednesday and Sunday evenings.

Personal Remarks and Comments of the Boys.

Bill Lanigan shows characteristic signs of bachelorhood and collects old pipes and spends much time "Reading History of past wars."

Fred Howell expects to cover himself with glory and with as many badges of honor as he had neckties not long ago.

I asked Ralph Brumback how he liked the army by this time, his heart leaped with joy, then seemed to stand still before it beat again, "Just fine Lee."

Francis O'Shaughnessy telephoned the "old lady" that Maggie was safe with him, after they rode uptown on top of a bus.

Paul Mossman sent a whale of a bunch of carnations to a girl in Circleville. He says she's a "Land Scape."

Jerome Norpel went down to the nearest bun shop for a tea supper last Thursday.

"Betsy" Simpson is some carpen-

(Special to The Advocate.)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, March 7.—The folks back home and civilians from almost everywhere who have visited us at some time—can hardly fail to be impressed with this one observation—that the men are enjoying their experiences in Camp Sherman. Real American boys who have taken up with zest and enthusiasm their preparation for the big tasks ahead of them—a fact of cheer for "The People" which that word optimism cannot exaggerate. In conclusion an appropriate point of comment is that "We are glad in cheer of our experience; glad that we are going 'Over There'; glad in fellowship as comrades, a conscious force that men feel when each knows from tried experience that he can rely always on his 'buddies.'"

The association of Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus certainly rise to their opportunity in meeting the problems of spiritual service among the Soldiers in Camp Sherman. It is impossible to summarize in a few words the impression of the good they do—yet a message to the folks back home of thousands whom the writer has seen in "devout prayer in their halls—tell the story in the way of life in Christian living. The finest feeling has been shown between the Y. M. C. A. associations and the Knights of Columbus. The Episcopal church—and the fine ministers who have spoken to the boys of various denominations, Lutheran, Reformed, Presbyterian, Baptist and others. War causes a spiritual enthusiasm. A thought for the soul.

Ex-President Taft, distinguished statesman, visited Camp Sherman for two days. He was the guest of Brigadier General Perkins while here. Many of Battery B boys heard the Ex-President and the substance of his message was "Work" and "Discipline" and once you have these, you have all the adaptability for the American soldier and for American manhood.

Many good shows are seen at the Liberty theatre in the Camp. Richard Carle's show of girls, fun and music, "Furs and Frills" gave good satisfaction. A comic opera, "Pirates of Penzance" given Lima's St. Rose Choral society was fine. "Daddy Long Legs," "Mutt and Jeff," and others were also here.

Enlisted men are prohibited from leaving in their possession leather leggings or anything not issued by the government. Packages from "home" as eats also are prohibited.

Captain Post who has been in attendance at the Artillery school at Fort Sill, Oklahoma is expected to return in a few days with a "glad welcome" from Battery B.

Battery B is now being taught many important things about artillery and as soon as the weather conditions will permit more extensive training will be the rule. What a battery has to do going into a position—what is expected of each and every one and what their respective duties are—is experienced by "all day hikes" which are to be the rule one day of each week from now on.

All boys from Newark wish to express our most hearty appreciation to Trades and Labor Assembly for the large contribution of London Sports cigarettes.

The thoughtfulness of so kind a remembrance will be one of the proudest memories.

Comrades Corporal Merle Orr and Buglar, a Ralph Shaw have returned from a 10 days' furlough. Cupid, that matrimonial bliss was the reason. The battery congratulates and wishes joy and happiness.

Lieut. Carpenter who has been absent from the battery for a period of six weeks has returned.

The entire 324th regiment is a little proud of recent promotions. Corporal Gainer of Headquarters Company is now Sergeant Gainer. John Weiler is now Battalion Sergeant Major of the regiment. Both are mighty fine fellows, possessing the best of qualifications.

It is with much regret that Battery B bids adieu to Frank Payne who has been given his honorable discharge. Our tribute to Frank is that he is one fine fellow. The goodbye salutation in fellowship is good luck.

Those who make up the special detail in Battery B from Newark are Corporals Jerome Norpel and Merle Orr, Privates Catt, Bernard Kates, Ed Fallon, Shiplet, Russell Harvey, Thomas Henry, George Coyle, Turner, Charles Gardner, Maurice Floyd.

The following men from Newark form detail in charge of reel cart in case of fire: Sergeant Victor Smith, Corporal Orr, Privates Hansbrough, W. B. Pryor, Francis Hanban, Jack Samolio, John Kappas, Carl Heintz and Henry Staveh.

A few briefs.
A new moving picture Theatre is being erected just across the way from Battery B.

Our boys think the 324th Regiment has the best location in the camp.

The Camp Sherman Laundry and the big remount station are most interesting concerns to visit.

The community house is the most popular place for the boys.

Every comrade has two comforts, always—mother's and sweetheart's letters. A card or a letter means so much happiness for us.

Lieutenant Hess is the song leader of the 324th Regiment.

The Knights of Columbus could not have sent more popular secretaries than William Lavin and Hugh Bradley. Both are fine fellows.

The Battery's "Gossip News" just talk is contributed to by every one.

Ray Wintermute received a letter from Jesse Chilcote "Somewhere in France." Jess is all O. K.

A funny sight, Dig Sensabaugh 6 feet 2 inches walking between two little soldiers—Shorty Hale and Shorty Looker—both a little over five feet in height.

Corporal William Howard has gone to Kenosha, Wisconsin for instruction in the motor school there.

A review of the 324th Regiment was held at the Ball Field last Saturday and Colonel Ashburn was well pleased.

Battery B will go to the Range about 11 miles southeast of Chillicothe about March the first. A real Howitzer has arrived.

Formal guard will happen every day as soon as weather permits.

Due to the breakage of the Camp's water system plant, one bath a week is the rule.

Each Battery in our Regiment has experienced the second hike. Licking county sent a good healthy bunch of boys here. Battery B, seems to be immune from a quarantine.

Washington's birthday, as a holiday was most welcome.

A very good program is the rule each evening at the Y. M. C. A. Music, pictures and lectures.

The writer is Battery B's correspondent for the 324th Division News, Camp Sherman News paper. As a sample of the style of dope the following is taken from a recent issue Battery B.

Sometimes it is not the largest adventure, not the largest event that evokes the most utterance in our battery of the week end. Yet the vision that excludes all else from the mind was the awe inspired by the "perfect beauty" last Thursday of our "Big Hike". The next great impression was the surpassing fitness of our battery. Lieutenant Brennan, with three markers started from the battery about 7 a. m. followed shortly afterward by Lieutenant Horneal and special detail. At 45 Major Clark, Lieutenant Limbach, Lieutenant Thompson and the battery. The boys had no knowledge of their destination, no conception "Just where" only that they had started on a marching adventure on ice. In about an hour a place called Viewpoint was reached, some five miles out. On arrival guns were stocked tents were pitched and trenches for fireplaces were dug and many other things military done. Then the entire battery was put into action making trenches, gun emplacements and aiming points. Noon and dinner each one cooling his bacon and potatoes. Photographer Miller then took a picture of the battery. Afterward the work was continued until 2 p. m. when "halt" was the command of Major Clark, who said that the battery did particularly well. Camp was broken. Battery B is a little proud of its special detail which did splendidly. The first long hike remains a pleasant memory.

Sergeant McFarland is now our supply Sergeant and the battery is proud. He is a prince, a mild mannered sort of a fellow and when he says "I haven't any" his sincerity is plainly evident.

One of the shrewdest soldiers is Top Sergeant Messenger—the reason given for this characterization is that any private can go to him for advice on any subject and he will never afterward refer to the matter not even to ask whether he was right or wrong.

Sergeant Simpson has built a crying room where

He said, for instance, "As boys should be educated with temperance, so the first great lesson that should be taught them is to admire frugality. It is by the exercise of this virtue alone that they can ever expect to be useful members of society." What better way to teach them than by purchasing United States War Savings and Thrift Stamps?

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED SO LOCAL DRUGGISTS CAN SELL THE WELL-KNOWN HULL'S SUPERLATIVE TO EVERYBODY

This Wonderful Preparation is Producing Astonishing Results Whenever It is Used

Every progressive druggist in Newark now has a good supply of Hull's Superlative and arrangements have been made whereby he can get all he wants on very short notice, so that no one need go without it, should they desire to buy a bottle. Many people keep Hull's Superlative in the home handy for any emergency use, and in this way prevent much sickness.

Hull's Superlative has been doing a great work for the past 23 years in restoring health to the suffering and afflicted. During that time thousands of men and women have been rescued from a life of sickness and misery by this splendid preparation. Many people in Newark owe their present good health to Hull's Superlative, and are loud in their praise for what it has done for them. Coughs, colds, grip and tonsillitis vanish in a hurry when Hull's Superlative is taken, and its occasional use will protect the body from disease and ailments of all kinds.

Reasons for Success. Hull's Superlative contains in very high concentration form exactly the same salts and minerals as are found in the human body, an insufficient quantity of which as Dr. Schuessler so fully and clearly demonstrated several years ago, is responsible for nearly every sickness attacking the human body. The Schuessler theory is employed by several thousand doctors throughout the country and is receiving the recognition it so justly deserves. It was only recently that an analysis of Hull's Superlative was made. This revealed the true reason for its phenomenal success in correcting diseased conditions, and now it is generally known that this preparation is, in reality, not a medicine, but a vitality-builder. It is easily assimilated by the blood and carried to every part of the body, and in this way rebuilds and repairs worn and broken down tissue.

Stomach and Nerve Troubles. Hull's Superlative is wonderfully efficacious when taken for any stomach or nerve disorder and brings relief in a hurry. Thousands of men and women have been restored to health by Hull's Superlative.

Any one not enjoying good health owes it to himself to get a bottle of this great preparation at once and regain the health and strength rightly his. The makers of Hull's Superlative have great faith in their preparation and ask every druggist to stand back of every bottle he sells and if for any reason whatever a customer takes part of an entire bottle full and does not obtain the help he thinks he is entitled to, he is requested to return the bottle, and get his money back. Surely a more liberal offer could not be made.

For sale by all druggists.

Don't wait for time to heal your skin—

"Oh it will get well anyhow!" you say! Perhaps it will, and perhaps it won't. Maybe it will get worse instead. And think of the discomfort and embarrassment it causes you even now.

Isn't it better to get rid of the trouble by using Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap? Doctors have prescribed the Resinol treatment for over 20 years, so you need not hesitate to use it. Resinol actually cures itching instantly. All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. Use Resinol Soap for your hair, too.

MAGNESIA BATHS FOR INDIGESTION

Doctor Recommends Them in Place of Drugs, Pepsin, Soda or Artificial Digestants.

"Only those in constant touch with sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia can fully realize the harm done by the improper use of artificial digestants or drugs like pepsin or soda pills and tablets in the treatment of stomach trouble," declares a well known physician.

"In fully nine cases out of ten digestive trouble is caused by an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach, which soured and ferments the food, creating gas on the stomach and often causing indigestion, heartburn, and flatulence."

The forcing of food from stomach to intestines, with artificial digestants in such a case is almost criminal folly, as serious intestinal irritation, and inflammation, soothe and allay inflammation and irritation of the stomach walls and thus permit the normal healthy digestion of the food.

You can give your acid inflamed stomach no finer treatment than a magnesia bath. It is simple, easy and pleasant to take, cannot injure the stomach and is not at all expensive. Just get a small bottle of Epsom's Magnesia (either tablets or powder) from your druggist, put a teaspoonful of the powder or two tablets in a glass of water and drink it at every meal for a few days and your stomach will act and feel fine. It must be understood that I do not advise the use of such forms of magnesia as citrates, acetates, sulphates, milks or lump magnesia. One of these might do more harm than good. I believe that nothing but pure bicarbonate magnesia should be used to neutralize an acid stomach.

The best druggists have it and in the bisulphated tablet or powder form it will instantly neutralize stomach acidity and insure painless, natural digestion for even chronic sufferers from stomach trouble.—Advt.

CAME VERY NEAR LOSING AN EYE AT B. & O. SHOPS

Webb Bieherbach, 159 South Fifth street, a blacksmith at the B. & O. shops met with a very painful accident yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. He was operating an automatic hammer and in some manner it slipped and a chip from the piece of steel that was being hammered struck him in the corner of the left eye, following a downward course along the nose, cutting a deep gash which required a number of stitches to close. He had a very narrow escape from losing the sight of the eye because if it had been a fraction of an inch closer to the eye the sight would have been destroyed.

Iron Trade Review.
Cleveland, March 7.—The Iron Trade Review today says:
Price matters again are commanding the chief attention of the iron and steel industry as April 1, when the present schedules expire, draws near. The market is now in a position to meet the higher producing costs in certain lines is being urged by the works. At a general conference of iron and steel makers at New York the market was the discussion centered around the question of the movement for advanced prices for their finished product which they declare are necessary to enable them to meet the rising costs in plants especially there has been much dissatisfaction with the present price of 2.25¢ at which it is claimed but few mills are able to show a profit.

Recovery of the pig iron production after the recent sweeping curtailment of the blast furnaces, which was due to weather conditions. This is illustrated by the 219 furnaces which were in blast the last day of February, against 224 in January, a gain of 25. The average daily output of the furnaces in February was 82,734 tons compared with 77,523 tons in January.

Shortage of the market supply of pig iron apparently is increasing. Increased government supervision of blast furnace operations. The question is being put squarely up to Washington authorities by the appeal of important steel works buyers in Pittsburgh and Ohio territory who are producing war essentials. These consumers, unable to secure needed tonnage more than 100,000 tons, have petitioned those charged with the distribution of raw materials to have the producers be directed to change to basic in their behalf certain furnace capacity now on foundry iron. Curtailment of building permits has been advocated by the steel director as one means of conserving pig iron for more essential steel requirements. Low government orders of large tonnage are in sight. For the expected contracts for 150,000 cars and 2,500 locomotives, probably 1,500,000 tons of steel will be needed.

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime. Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

WHEN ITCHING STOPS

A Little Zemo, the Penetrating, Antiseptic, Satisfying Liquid, Gives Almost Instant Relief

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin irritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin.

Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, blackheads, eczema, blotches, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

A little zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions and makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

POULTRY NOTES

Helping Biddy Bring Off Her Brood.

By Mrs. E. W. Mahood.

In selecting eggs for hatching take only smooth eggs, neither very large nor very small. Never set more than fifteen eggs under one hen and if the hen is small or the weather very cold, thirteen are better.

Do not remove the hen from the nest she has chosen for herself in the laying or breeding house until she has set for at least twenty-four hours. Then give her a pen to herself where she will not be disturbed by the laying hens. If you cannot spare her a pen, fence off a corner of your laying house with poultry netting covered with muslin or burlap. Prepare for her a good sized box which is placed on the floor of the house and which is large enough to allow her all the room she needs when she is spread out to her full size. Fill the nest with clean straw and hay, rounding it out in the center so that the eggs will not spread out all over the nest or be dragged out by the hen as she leaves her nest. After the hen has fully decided to bring off a brood, dust her thoroughly with ice powder and put her on the nest thus prepared.

If she does not settle down as quietly as she should, give her dust and eggs for a day or two and keep her covered with another box. Give her a box of good dry dirt in which she can dust herself, provide her with plenty of grain, a little green food, plenty of fresh water and keep a dish of charcoal and grit where she can easily find it. See that she leaves her nest once a day for feed and water and watch that she goes back to her own nest. Do not leave any other nesting places around to tempt her to be faithless to her own.

Christian Science Chaplain.

Editor of The Advocate: The account of the appointment of Richard J. Davis as a Christian Science chaplain, with assignment to the navy, in The Newark Advocate of February 19, has been read with appreciation for the recognition of its significance, but in stating that Mr. Davis is "the first and only Christian Science chaplain so far named by Uncle Sam," you have overlooked the two previous appointments by the war department. Martin F. Jackson of New York, and Edward W. Dickey of Los Angeles, were given commissions in the army last November, and both are actively engaged in the service.

Sincerely yours,
Lewis L. Harney,
Committee on Publication.

GIRLS! MOISTEN A CLOTH AND DRAW IT THROUGH HAIR

It becomes beautifully soft, wavy, abundant and glossy at once.

Save your hair! All dandruff goes and hair stops coming out.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Save your hair! Keep it looking charming and beautiful. You will say this was the best money you ever spent.

WHY MARCH IS THE MOST DANGEROUS MONTH

from neglected colds and those who are weakened and run-down are easy victims. But if the system is given strength, if the impurities are driven from the blood and the nerve tissues fed with a wholesome and strengthening food medicine such as Father John's Medicine, there is no danger in the change of seasons.

Father John's Medicine is invaluable as a tonic in the spring. It strengthens the system and drives out the poisonous waste matter, builds up the body. It is this power that has made it so successful in treating colds and throat troubles.

The danger in using patent medicines is from the stimulants and dangerous drugs which many of them depend on for their temporary effect. Because it is free from alcohol, narcotics and dangerous drugs, Father John's Medicine has had 60 years of success as a tonic and body builder, and in the treatment of coughs and colds. Father John's Medicine is a doctor's prescription—pure and wholesome. Guaranteed.

WEAK KIDNEYS MEAN A WEAK BODY

When you're fifty, your body begins to creak a little at the hinges. Motion is more slow and deliberate. "No, so young as I used to be" is a frequent and unwelcome thought. Certain bodily functions upon which good health and good spirits so much depend, are impaired. The weak spot is usually the bladder. Unpleasant symptoms show themselves. Painful and annoying complications in other organs arise. This is particularly true with elderly people. If you only know how, this trouble can be avoided.

For over 20 years GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL has been relieving the inconvenience and pain due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy, and needs no introduction. It is now put up in odorless tasteless capsules. These are easier and more pleasant to take than the oil in bottles.

Each capsule contains about one dose of five drops. Take them just like you would any pill, with a small swallow of water. They soak into the system and throw off the poisons which are making you old before your time. They will quickly relieve those stiff joints, that backache, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gall-stones, gravel, "brick-dust," etc. They are an effective remedy for all diseases of the bladder, kidney, liver, stomach and allied organs.

Go to your druggist today and get a box of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. Money refunded if they do not help you. These capsules, GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES, are the pure, original imported Haarlem Oil Capsules. Accept no substitutes.

AMUSEMENTS

"Golden Rule Kate."

Louise Glaum as a sassy, siren in her latest Triangle play, "Golden Rule Kate," will be the feature at the Grand theatre, Thursday and Friday.

She appears as the proprietress of the "Rialto Light" theatre, a place of amusement in a western mining town. The curious garments, such as "the devil's gown," "the spider dress," "the peacock robe," which have contributed to the fame of this "siren supreme," are discarded and replaced by the buckskin skirt and hood-trimmed accoutrements of a dance hall girl, who might be described as a "temple girl."

Use of the most exciting and humorous moments of the play is supplied when Golden Rule Kate orders one of her cowboys to go forth, lasso the village preacher and drag him into the dance hall. Fortunately, Kate's faithful "squire," a modified, and she makes a compact with him whereby it is agreed that she will attend his church every Sunday and he will attend her in her saloon one hour each day.

This character is so utterly different from the siren of the past, that Miss Glaum that it will be acclaimed as novelty, although it is served as a foil for her in her western pictures.

The piece was introduced by Donald Barker from a story by Monte M. Katterjohn, and the cast includes as Jack Gilbert, Gertrude Maize, Mildred Harris, Jack Richardson, William Conklin and J. P. Lockney.

GEM

Friday

"The Scarlet Car" is the title of the Bluebird picture which comes to the Gem theatre on Friday with smiling, dashing Franklyn Farum enacting the stellar role. The play is a serene adaptation of Richard Harland Davis's absorbing mystery story of the same name. Billy Winthrop, the hero, is the town idler of Bolton who, through a series of circumstances, makes him a useful citizen. The task which confronts him is the solving of the mystery of the disappearance of Paul Revere Forbes, cashier of the Bolton bank and father of his sweet-heart, Beatrice. Beatrice is the wife of the marriage of Beatrice to Ernest Peabody.

AUDITORIUM

"A Modern Musketeer"

The Auditorium tomorrow and Saturday offers Douglas Fairbanks in "A Modern Musketeer" together with "A Son of Democracy." In "A Modern Musketeer" Douglas Fairbanks is Ned Thacker of Kansas, through prearrangement, inherited the spirit of D'Artagnan, six months before he was killed. His only religion is his own, hoping that the story would bring the reincarnation of D'Artagnan, a boy who might be as brave as his ancestor. Her wish was gratified, and when Ned grew to young manhood he often became the recipient of rebukes from strange women who misunderstood him, and whom he tried to assist.

Dorothy Morane and her mother are the guests of Raymond Peters, one of the richest men in New York, on a transcontinental journey. They learn that a bridge has been built over the Grand Canyon, and that the bridge is named after Ned. Ned ponders the use of his Ford, which is declined by Peters. The latter is in love with Dorothy, who is only sixteen, and her mother encourages the attentions of Peters, who is forty-five. Hunger finally compels the pair to accept Ned's assistance, and he drives them to a hotel. Ned drives the car, and the girl sits on the front seat with him. As the time they reach the Grand Canyon Ned's car is suddenly lost his heart.

Ned stops at the same hotel, where his great love is mysteriously and occasionally glimpsed of Dorothy. He learns from a reporter that Peters has already three wives and that Dorothy and Ned possess the use of his Ford, which is declined by Peters. The latter is in love with Dorothy, who is only sixteen, and her mother encourages the attentions of Peters, who is forty-five. Hunger finally compels the pair to accept Ned's assistance, and he drives them to a hotel. Ned drives the car, and the girl sits on the front seat with him. As the time they reach the Grand Canyon Ned's car is suddenly lost his heart.

The Great Nicola

Manager Fenberg has arranged a great feature attraction for his theatre on next Wednesday evening. The Great Nicola, and his company of Fifteen, who will offer mysteries, marvels, illusions, legends, character transformations and delineations and magic melodramas, etc.

A full car of scenery and tons of accessories, including a number of wild animals that are utilized in his performance and the attractions presented are wonderfully diversified and well calculated to please the taste and requirements of the most blasé amusement hunter.

This attraction is one of the best on the road at the present time and in all cities visited, the press and public have given the attraction the best notices and the business in each city has been wonderful. Newark theatre goers remember Leroy Bonco & Company who appeared here last year, and made a big hit. This company is equally better and under the same management. The features of the program are reported to be numerous and accomplished with such celerity that they move along faster than they can be described, and even after seeing some of his demonstrations, it is said that one cannot concentrate on any idea of their baffling and puzzling perplexities. In selecting his company, Nicola made novelty and sensation the keynote, as is evidenced in the appearance of several big specialists from the amusement capitals of Europe, and entirely new to the stage in this country. Nicola has just finished a world tour and is headed west where he expects to take part in Australia. A popular scale of prices has been arranged, the highest being one dollar. Seats will be placed out Monday, and those attending this performance can be well assured of real classy entertainment.

"The Son of Democracy"

It is not generally known, but it is nevertheless a fact that "The Son of Democracy," the new series of plays, written, directed, and produced by Benj. Chapin, comes to the Auditorium tomorrow and Saturday in conjunction with Douglas Fairbanks in "A Modern Musketeer," cost more to produce, per reel, than any other feature production, even those made on the most elaborate scale. "The Son of Democracy" is said to be a wonderful and in "The Son of Democracy" over fifty thousand feet of film was taken, of which only two thousand is shown. The cost of production which is achieved by such care-taking methods will be assurance to our patrons that the cost of "The Son of Democracy" is a standard that all will surely want to see each series at the Auditorium as they are offered.

Hearst-Pathe News

The Hearst-Pathe News No. 1848, shown tomorrow and Saturday at the Auditorium, has some most interesting data, the most interesting being the death of "Camel" the all-American when 10,000 strong do a two mile country run—this is practice for the marathon race over the Transian Hills. The war section shows our "sons over there" the Great Lakes Training Station, with ex-President Taft among the jacks, is also a big feature.

"The Heart of Romance"

One of the distinguished marks of "The Heart of Romance," John Campbell's latest production, to be shown at the Auditorium Sunday, is the quickness and crispness of the humor in the production.

To these funds to rescue "Miss Carver," from financial difficulties in which she is involved, Harvey Grewson (Bernard Thornton), a young writer, cajoles two deputy sheriffs into accepting some stories he has written as security. Why are the sheriff at first but he speaks glowingly of the profits from literary work.

"The Heart of Romance" is a play by Robert Burns, the chief, eloquent, is worth $10,000—only two hundred words. He points out at this time of year, the material of which he is the author. He takes some dramatic from the dramatic and they could find a single manuscript of a Shakespeare play they would pay half a million for it. Here are four plays: see how clean and well written. See how clean and Shakespeare never spelled the same word twice alike! My grammar is perfect.

"The Heart of Romance" is at the Auditorium theatre on Sunday.

ALHAMBRA

Tonight

Madge Evans, The World's Kiddie Star, appears as an artist in her newest "World-Picture" Brady-Made, "Gates of Gladness." Madge will be shown at the Alhambra theatre Friday and Saturday.

This new picture does Madge a special favor and she does some of the best acting of her career. It is a successful, career in it. The story is an unusual one and is full of interest. It is a picture that should start to finish it is enthralling and attention-holding. It has been staged on an elaborate scale and the most obtainable, pointing players are the best obtainable.

Friday and Saturday

A Western train hold-up is an entertaining feature in "Red, White and Blue Blood," a Metro Wonderplay, co-starring Francis X. Bushman, and Beverly Bayne, which will be shown at the Alhambra theatre Friday and Saturday.

Helen Malloy, Smith (Beverly Bayne), the heroine of the story, is coming East on the transcontinental train and at a lonely spot the train is held up by a band of robbers. John Smith (Francis X. Bushman) disarms the bandits and orders the passengers to reclaim their valuables while he makes up for the robbers' loss. This incident brings the young people together. A special train was hired to secure these scenes. Director Bradburn introduced many incidental bits of comedy action which offer strong contrast to the thrilling scenes of the hold-up.

The Life of Your Shoes

Depends largely on the care you take of them. You can't expect good service if you wear the sole of your shoe clear down to the upper—and you shouldn't expect a good repair job either. When your shoes begin to show the result of wear bring them in and have them repaired.
The old story of "a stitch in time saves nine," holds good in shoe-repairing the same as anything else.
Good materials, expert workmanship, reasonable prices, prompt service, are reasons why you should bring your shoe-troubles to us.

WM. FISBAUGH & SON,

IT'S TRUE ECONOMY TO BUY MITCHELL CLOTHES.

spect the new styles in clothing and furnishings shown here before selecting their spring outfit. We can give popular styles.

Quality and satisfaction are watch-words with us. We sell only such makes of clothing that have stood the tests of all claims made for them by the manufacturers.

That's why our list of regular patrons is growing daily.

With You Any Longer.

Don't suffer when you can get
"Neurone Prescription 99."

Rheumatism one of the most common ailments is one of the hardest to cure, because of its being a blood disease. Any remedy to be effective must purify the blood and kidneys, common sense teaches you this.

That is why "Neurone Prescription 99" is so successful, it is a combination from the prescription of a specialist.

It relieves those sore, inflamed joints and muscles. "It puts out the fire." It does all these things, restores your health, makes you happy and free from pain.

Go to your druggist today and get a 50c or $1.00 bottle, then say, goodbye Rheumatism. Mail orders filled on $1.00 size.

TO SELL GERMAN PROPERTY HERE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, March 7.—Congress was asked today by A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian, for legislation empowering him to sell any enemy property in the United States within his discretion.

Such legislation attached to the urgent deficiency appropriation bill was requested by Mr. Palmer before the senate appropriations committee in supplementing President Wilson's recent request for authority to acquire legal title to the German wharves and property at Hoboken,
N. J.

The appropriations committee approved both proposed amendments and ordered a favorable report for their addition to the urgent deficiency bill in order to expedite action.

The principal reason for authorizing discretionary sale of enemy property as well as the acquisition of the North German-Lloyd and Hamburg-American lines, Mr. Palmer told the committee, was to hamper Germany and at the same time aid the United States in the war.

Proceeds of any sales would be turned into the treasury or used as the government saw fit, but might be returned to enemy-owners after the war, subject to peace terms.

American property in Germany can be treated similarly under the German law.

IS NEWARK SATISFIED?

The Evidence Is Convincing—The Testimony Open to Investigation.

Before a statement can be accepted here, it must be supported by local testimony—by the evidence of someone residing in Newark. Statements from unknown people in remote places may be true, but we cannot prove them. Here is a statement by a Newark resident:

O. E. Ryan, proprietor of grocery, 194 East Main street, says: "I suffered at times from a lame and painful back, brought on by the deordered condition of my kidneys. My kidneys didn't act as they should and I knew they needed attention.
Doan's Kidney Pills had been used with such good results in the family that I tried them. They soon straightened me up in good shape and regulated my kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ryan had. Foster-Milburn

FIRST RUBBER TIRES MADE IN NEWARK

They Were Built by Hand by the Well-Known Local Dealer,
S. M. Wolfe.

S. M. Wolfe, the well-known auto tire and accessories dealer, 59-61
Hudson avenue, has had a very wide and varied experience in all branches of tire business. This experience is not only of great value to him, but to all who are interested in tires or in investments in the tire industries.

He began with the Diamond Rubber company, Akron, which the first pneumatic tires were made. They tacked the fabrics on to wooden cores. In those days the business lasted only three or four months out of each year. Mr. Wolfe was with the Diamond about four years.

His next experience was with the Kelly-Springfield company, also in Akron. He was with this company eight years, working in every department of the tire-building industry, because the company was fitting him to take charge of special work.
They then sent him on a road one and a half year establishing agencies, his experience being such that he could instruct dealers in all the details regarding tires, tire troubles, their causes and all the varied information necessary to really good tire dealers.

Mr. Wolfe then came to Newark and made the first 800 tires for the Newark Tire & Rubber company, which was then a part of the Rugg Halter factory. He was the only builder in that department. When the tire business changed to the Pharis Tire & Rubber company, he was with the new company more than a year.

To the many good makes of tires that he now handles, Mr. Wolfe has added the "Peerless," made by the Midland Tire & Rubber company, Coshocton, O. This tire has no mileage guarantee, but is guaranteed by the factory as to workmanship and quality of material.

The prices are attractive. Non-skid, 30x3, $9.00; 30x3 1-2, $11.50; 34x2 1-2, $15.40; 34x4, $18.50. Additional charge on same tires for 3500 or 4000-mile guarantee. Prices on all sizes are in proportion to those given above.

By doing business on an absolutely cash basis, and by cutting out the mileage guarantee, the Midland Tire & Rubber company can give greater value for less money. The "Ben Hur" tire, which will be put on the market as soon as the necessary additional working capital is procured to get the moulds and material to build them in large numbers, will class up to the best in service, save the auto-dealer money, make the dealer a fine profit without the worry of adjustment, and pay the investor handsome dividends.

It will pay you to investigate, by going to those who actually know.
The opinions of those who do not actually know these tires, who do not actually know the company, and who do not actually know what the company is doing are dangerous to follow. Go to S. M. Wolfe, the MAN WHO KNOWS, Or, let F. W.
Mead, assistant sales manager for the Midland, take you to the factory.
See him at Arcade hotel.

Chicago, March 7.—Nation-wide prohibition and woman suffrage will be the leading planks in the platform of the new national party, which resumed sessions of its first national convention here today, augmented by more than 100 delegates, who bolted the Prohibition party late yesterday when that party decried over a proposed merger. The adoption of a platform was expected some time today.

Members of the National committee of the Prohibition party remained over today with representation from the new organization to arrange for complete co-operation between the two, as a result of a compromise resolution passed by the older body last night.
Many prohibitionists who fought the merger on the floor of their convention were in attendance at the National party session today.

Progressive leaders throughout the country are also rallying under the new standard according to Chairman Coates of Colorado, of the National party, and a member of the more important of this political body is looked forward to.

Sessions of the first National convention of the National party began today with representation from the Prohibition National convention on almost equal standing to the original delegates of the National party. The convention opened yesterday, listened to an address by John Spargo of Vermont, and after minor business adjourning to await the action of the Prohibitionists on the question of a merger.

Accession of fifty-one Prohibition delegates were announced to the National party leaders and it was announced at headquarters that many more accessions to the National rank were expected from the Prohibition representatives. During the informal meetings of the National delegates a charge of name for the party was discussed and it was expected this subject would be brought before the convention today.

NEW LEADERS IN BOWLING SCORES AT CINCINNATI

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM

Cincinnati, March 7.—C. Styles of Detroit by bowling 702 in the singles yesterday topped the high score of 689 made by C. Wagner of Newark, N. J., on February 21, five days after the tournament of the American Bowling Congress began, and is now the bowling leader of the individual bowlers who have essayed to win honors in the tourney.

A few hours after Styles had assumed the lead in the singles the Page Dairys of Toledo, O., bowled into second place in the live-men teams event by rolling 2961 being 61 pins behind the Aquilas Cigars of St. Paul who are leading in that class.

Clausius team of Chicago who bowled on the same shift with the Page Dairys, went into fifth place in the five men event by toppling over 2891.

There were several other changes in the standing of the ten leaders during the bowling yesterday. Styles, who was a partner of Styles in the doubles event, rolled for a score of 672, gaining fifth place in the standing. While J. Kilpatrick of Detroit, 663, tying J. ## JOHNSTOWN CASE HEARD TODAY BY CIRCUIT COURT

On Tuesday the Court of Appeals heard the arguments of counsel in the case of Ethel Pratt Simpson, et al vs. the Village of Johnstown. The plaintiffs are the benefit of the plaintiffs interested in the question involved in the case and to prevent a multiplicity of suits. In June, 1912, the Village Council passed a resolution to open certain streets, declaring that council deemed it necessary to open them. Plaintiffs say that they are the owners in fee simple and are in possession of the ground proposed to be taken for street purposes, and that the Village has no legal right or authority to take possession of or use any of the said strips or to devote the same to street purposes. Plaintiffs were ordered by the court to remove all obstructions from the strips. Plaintiffs ask for an injunction restraining the council from making possession.

After hearing the arguments of counsel the court took the case under advisement.

The case is being heard upon a transcript of the record of the trial in the court of common pleas, supplemented by additional documentary evidence.

BIG SALE FOR MATCH TONIGHT AT AUDITORIUM

There has been a big demand for reservations to witness Paul Bowser and Con Albright mix it up tonight at the National theatre when the two athletes meet in a finish wrestling bout, best two falls out of three.

Both men are in splendid physical condition and will put up the battle of their career. Albright would give much to win the decision and Bowser don't intend to let it slip from his grasp if he can prevent it. The local man is the acknowledged middle weight world's champion and that fact is known from coast to coast. The man has not yet been found who can throw him at his weight.

Both Albright and Bowser have agreed to terms where a little over weight as neither believe there will be any advantage. Albright states that he will weigh about 163 pounds while Bowser will weigh 165. The exhibit promises to be the best of the season and a large crowd of fans are anticipating a rare treat.

Good preliminaries have been arranged and the bill will start promptly at 8:15 o'clock. The Auditorium orchestra will furnish an excellent musical program and this will also be worth while.

A big crowd of fans witnessed Albright work out last evening at the Bowser gym and he took on a number of local boys, all of whom said he had rightfully earned his title. "The Rochester White Lion" Bowser too enjoyed a good workout and put on the finishing touches today and is all ready to defend his title when time is called this evening.
